Thanks.

That helps.

The paraphrasing "they didn't send us anything," still sounds accurate.

Hi, Steve. Here is Jill's more detailed summary of the info we got from CBD.

Hi Lori,

To clarify, CBD sent us a mixed bag of things. I did go through them all. They sent us approximately 140 articles. A number of them, particularly the local and most relevant ones, were ones we had reviewed for the previous list (ex. several of the Feely papers, the Barton, 2012 paper on the Whisky Creek Hatchery, etc.)

Attorney Client / Deliberative Process / Ex. 5

Attorney Client / Deliberative Process / Ex. 5

So, to summarize, CBD sent us:

1. OR relevant articles we already reviewed, that contained no biological data in state waters.
2. A vast number of articles that are irrelevant for a listing decision for a variety of reasons we already detailed.
3. Approximately a dozen new, local articles that warrant closer review, but which seem to be lacking biological data in OR state waters.

Let me know if you need more info. Thx.

jill

Hi, Tom. Thank you for your thoughts. Correcting some facts. EPA partially disapproved the Oregon list for failure to assess marine waters for any parameters as well as freshwater and we evaluated data/info related to numeric and narrative criteria for marine waters in coming up with our proposed listings. Attorney Client / Deliberative Process / Ex. 5
